FOREWARD

The Boone County (W. Va.) Genealogical Society was organized late in 1975 for the purpose of gathering information about the people of Boone County, as well as adjacent regions, and their ancestry, and to preserve it in forms that will make it available to them and others who may be interested. Monthly meetings have been held in the Boone-Madison Library in Madison, W. Va., for the purpose of gathering and exchanging such information. All funds coming into the hands of the society, from dues or other sources, have been used to buy books or other materials useful for the above purposes, and these have been placed in the above named library where they are available to the public as well as to society members.

In order to ensure the preservation of the information that has been gathered and to make it more readily available for interested people, the society is embarking on a publishing program and this volume represents its first effort in that field. In it are published records that are not obtainable locally, such as Boone County marriages, 1854-1861, which are recorded only in Richmond, Virginia, and some U. S. Census records, and also some family histories. It may be mentioned here that the society will welcome family histories in publishable form that relate to this region, as the publishing program is to be continued. Suggestions for improving the publication will also be appreciated.

Current officers of the Boone County Genealogical Society are: president, Sigfus Olafson, 507 Kanawha Ave., Madison, WV 25130; Vice-president, Marvin E. Nelson, 35 Turley St., Madison, WV 25130; and Mrs. Janet Hager, Box 146, Hewett, WV 25108, who is secretary-treasurer.

THE STOLLINGS FAMILY IN BOONE COUNTY

Submitted by: Mrs. William Hager

INTRODUCTION: To do a short history on a Boone County family is next ot impossible without going back to the begining which always takes us back to other states and counties. therefore we will deal with Jacob Stallings and his family before they came to this area and their settlement of what is now Logan county, and then we will follow the line's of his descendants into what is now Boone County, West Virginia.

The original spelling of our name is Stallings, although the descendants of Jacob Stallings now spell it Stollings. Some branches of the Stallings family can trace their ancestry back to the early 1600's in Denmark. This is not the case with our Jacob.

Jacob Stallings was probably born around 1750 in North Carolina. He married Sarah * before 1780. When I deal with the early years of Jacobs life before 1796, I am guessing. Since our ancestors moved around so much, it is not impossible for Jacob to have been in the following places.

In 1782 there is a Jacob Stallings and Joel Estes in Henry County, Virginia. Was this our Jacob? Four of Jacob Stallings children married children of a Joel Estes.

Survey Book D, page 738 of Montgomery County, Virginia shows a Jacob Stallings owning 125 acres of land on the West side of New River on 16 Oct. 1789. Since there are no 1790 census records of Montgomery County in existence I can not check to see if he was there in 1790.

Some of Jacob's children were born in North Carolina. In the 1790 census of Rowan County, North Carolina, Salisbury District I find a Jacob Stallings who fits the description of our Jacob. He has 1 son under 16 years old and 3 daughters. He is also the owner of 1 slave.

The mystery is am I dealing with two separate Jacob Stallings or just following the same Jacob as he moves around. From 1796 to the present I am sure of the facts.

According to records in Kanawha County, Jacob Stallings purchased the land he was living on at Crawley Creek in 1796, Jacob being one of the first settlers of present day Logan Co. He was a Methodist Minister and farmer, being a slave owner and considered well to do for this period of time. Jacob performed most of the marriages ceremony's of the early settlers of this area. He died before June 1819 and is buried on the property of the Logan County Country Club according to one of his descendants, Stonewall Barker. This was originally part of the Stallings property.

Sarah, wife of Jacob Stallings died between 1820-1830 and was probably buried near Jacob. Following is a record of their children, taken from the records of Cabell, Logan, and Boone counties.

*Wife of Jacob may have been Sarah Ann, dau of Josiah Smith of Henry Co. Va.

1. Susannah Stollings who married Henry Baker
2. Josiah Stollings born around 1790 who married Lovey, dau. of Joel and Nancy Estes, who settled in Cabell County before 1808.
3. Isaac Stollings born 1796, married Elizabeth, dau. of John Perry, Feb. 8th 1820 in Cabell County. Isaac died Nov. 30th 1856 in Logan County.
4. Griffin Stollings born around 1799 and married Nancy, dau. of Joel & Nancy Estes. Griffin died Oct. 9th 1878 in Boone Co.
5. Jesse Stollings, no information
6. Jacob Stollings, no information
7. Samuel Stollings, married Lavina Kessinger. Samuel died around 1835 leaving two sons, William and Thomas Benton who were later adopted by their step father J. W. Pauley and thereafter went by the name of Pauley.
8. Jemimah Stollings who married Fredrick Miller.
9. Sarah Stollings who married first, Michael Spanhoward and second Richard Johnson.
10. Mary Stollings who married James Hannon
11. Nancy Stollings born around 1801 who married William Hinchman, Jr., as his second wife.
12. Patsy Stollings who married Joel Estes, Jr., son of Joel and Nancy Estes.
13. Betsy Stollings who married John Jenks.
14. Loviza Stollings who married Archibald Estes, son of Joel and Nancy Estes.

Griffin Stollings, son of Jacob and Sarah, married Nancy dau. of Joel and Nancy Estes around 1823-4. He came to Boone County between 1840-1850 with his family. He was a well known merchant, owning at least 2 stores, one at Madison and one near Whitesville. He purchased ginseng and shipped it to Ohio, which could lead us into the story about how one shipment was stole. Children of Griffin and Nancy are as follows:

1. Col. Joel E. Stollings, who married first Martha, dau. of Wilson & Mary Kessinger, Apr. 14, 1856, and second Ella B., dau. of David Croft. Joel was a prominent figure in Boone County, holding offices in our county and state government. Joel was also a Col. in the Confederate Army during the Civil War, and was captured by Federal troops in Tazewell County during that war.
2. Dryden Stollings who married Elizabeth, dau. of Chapman and Nancy Ballard, May 1, 1860. They had one son E. Douth Stollings born 1861, who married Mary Susan (Fry) Ballard, widow.
3. Calvary (Cap) Stollings who married, Stacy, dau. of John and Lucy Canterbury. Calvary died Jan. 1867. They had 5 children, Horace, B. Cicero, Narcissus, Hershel, and Courtney Ann.
4. Samuel Stollings who married Mary, dau. of John & Telitha Powell. Samuel & Mary both died before 1864, leaving an orphan son, Cleophas Samuel Stollings, who married Josephine Hopkins.
5. Matilda Stollings born 1824, who married Blackburn Barrett. They died before 1860 leaving 4 orphan children, Frances V., Sarah J. D., Mary L. and Thomas C..
6. Anne Stollings born 1840, died 1850.

Isaac Stollings son of Jacob and Sarah, married Sarah Elizabeth Perry, (dau. of John & Elizabeth (Dixon) Perry) Feb. 8th 1820 in Cabell County. They had at least 5 children but the names of only three are known to me. Cynthia Stollings who married first Richard Taylor and second her cousin Griffin, son of Josiah and Lovey Stollings. Granville Stollings who married Elizabeth dau. of Robert and Juliet (Conley) Chambers, and James R. Stollings who appears in the 1880 Logan County census without wife or family.

Granville and Elizabeth Stollings settled in Washington District of Boone County and raised the following children:

1. Robert P. Stollings born Sept. 18, 1855, who married 1st Emmaline McNeely and 2nd Margery, dau. of Thomas & Elizabeth (Vance) Hunter.
2. Richard Stollings born 1859
3. Minerva Stollings born 1863 who married Joseph son of John and Arrisba (Bias) Smith.
4. Joel E. Stollings born 1867 who married Dolly White
5. John French Stollings born 1870 who married Medora, dau. of John & Arrisba (Bias) Smith. Lived on Garrett's Fork, Logan Co..
6. Martha Belzora Stollings born 1873 who married Eli Akers son of Stephen and Sina as his second wife.
7. Louisa Stollings born 1850 who married Lewis, son of Joel and Rebecca (Hall) Estep. married Mar. 4, 1869.
8. Isaac G. Stollings born May 21, 1858 who married Clarinda dau. of William & Mary A. McNeely, Mar. 20, 1882.

The third Stollings to settle in Boone County was a grandson of Jacob Stollings and a son of Josiah & Hovey (Estes) Stollings. Nelson Stollings married Lurana, daughter of Abraham & Mary (Ballard) Workman between 1840-1844. He lived on Crawley Creek in Logan County until shortly before 1860 and then moved to Trace Fork in Boone County. During the Civil War he suffered heavy property and financial losses. He became a mail contractor and transported mail from Logan to Charleston and between Logan and Wayne County. He also established a post office at Trace Fork, now known as Manila. Nelson and Lurana were members of the Missionary Baptist Church and the democratic party. (Their sympathy lay with the south.) Nelson and Lurana are buried on Hollywood Branch near the home of their grandson Willie E. Stollings. I don't have the date of Nelson's death but Lurana died Aug. 9, 1892. Children of Nelson and Lurana were:

1. Letha Ann Stollings who married John A. son of William & *Nancy Harless, Feb. 24, 1865.
2. Thomas Benton Stollings who married Dicy Harless dau. of William & Milly Harless, Dec. 24, 1865. Great grandparents of Stonewall Barker, Jr..
3. James R. Stollings who married Sarah daughter of John and Rhoda (Johnson) Hager in 1873.
4. Mary Lovenia Stollings
5. Floyd B. Stollings who married Luella, daughter of William and Eliza (Godbey) Stone, May 15, 1873. The town of Stollings, Logan County bears his name.

* See Vol. III page II for children of Josiah & Lovey Stollings.

6. Charles Emmer Stollings who married Margery dau. of John P. and Letty (Adkins) Fowler, Jan. 24, 1879.
7. William F. Stollings
8. Elizabeth Stollings who married John son of Elias & Rebecca Stewart.

Margery, wife of Charles Emmer Stollings died Feb. 28, 1889. Charles died March 7, 1893, from extreme melancholy suffered from the loss of his wife. They left 4 orphan children to be raised by their grandfather John P. Fowler. Annie who married Edward Hill Sr. and lived on the North Fork of Big Creek. Lettie who married Thomas Workman and lived on Trace Fork. Polly who married Walter Ellis and lived on the North Fork of Big Creek. And last but not least my grandfather Willie E. Stollings born 18 Feb. 1887, married Edna, dau of Peter M. and Mary Ann (Vance) Mullins. Willie was a farmer all his life and still lives on Trace Fork. Willie and Edna raised nine children.

1. Orpha Stollings who married Isabella, dau. of Elbert and Nettie (Justice) Ellis.
2. Myrtle E. Stollings who married Eugene, son of Lantie and Lena (Hager) Webb.
3. Ida Pearl Stollings who married Robert L. son of George C. and Rossa (Cook) Barker and became my parents.
4. Ernie Stollings who married Elbert son of Frank and Minnie (Bell) Queen.
5. Berthold Stollings who married Josephine, dau. of George & Rossa (Cook) Barker.
6. Ruby who married Seymour son of Elbert and Nettie (Justice) Ellis.
7. Mary Stollings who married Glen son of Jesse and Vera (Price) Perdue.
8. Raymond Stollings who married Oletta dau. of Virgel and Una (Lucas) Webb.
9. Dennis Stollings who married Joy Adams.

The other children of Jacob Stallings either remained in Logan County or traveled on west, as this country of ours was settled. The records for these children are almost nonexistent with my main source of information being the will and land settlements of Jacob Stallings which are recorded in Cabell and Logan County. These records were provided to me by Mr. Sigfus Olafson.

AUTHOR: I was born March 19, 1935 at the home of my grandparents George and Rossa Barker, a daughter of Robert & Ida Stollings Barker. (I am including the inventory of Jacob Stallings' Estate as it shows how sufficient the early settlers were and how they had to depend on their own industry to survive. (Also note the mention of a canoe landing in Jacobs will. Evidently they used a canoe to travel back and forth on the Guyandotte River.) These old will's and appraisals give us some idea how our ancestors lived.)

BOONE COUNTY, W. VA., MARRIAGES, 1854 - 1861

Presumably the recording of vital statistics, births, deaths, and marriages, began in Boone County soon after it was organized in 1847 and continued, along with the recording of deeds, wills, tax matters, etc., until interrupted by events of the Civil War. The county government appears to have been solidly in favor of secession and the Confederacy and immediately took steps to arm and equip militia and appointed special police to enforce the laws passed by the Confederacy. However, there was in the county considerable opposition to secession.

In the summer of 1861 a Union army under Gen. Cox crossed the Ohio and advanced up the Kanawha Valley. The 187th Regiment, Boone County Militia, was ordered to muster at the Court House which then stood on the west side of Little Coal River near the mouth of Spruce Fork. Two militia companies, one on Mud River and the other at Peytona, where anti-secession sentiment was strong, refused to attend the muster, but about 475 men did attend.

On reaching a point opposite present Marmet Gen Cox heard about this force in Boone County and sent Lieut.-Col. Enyart with half of the 1st. Ky. Regiment to disperse it. On reaching the mouth of Hopkins Branch, below present Madison, Enyart divided his force, sending half of it across the river and the mountain back of present West Madison so as to reach Spruce Fork above the Court House and militia, while with the other half he proceeded up the east bank of Little Coal River. On reaching a point near the junction of Kanawha Avenue and First Street in Present Madison he halted and sent an officer with a flag of truce, reportedly to ask the Militia to lay down its arms and disperse. While this officer was wading the river with his flag of truce he was shot and wounded, probably by a civilian hiding behind trees at the forks of the river.

The Union troops, thinking he had been shot by the Militia, charged on the town and the untrained Militia fled across Spruce Fork, and apparently in retaliation for the shooting of a man with a flag of truce, burned the Court House and adjacent buildings. Apparently they permitted records relating to land ownership to be removed before the Court House was burned, as the first three Deed Books, the first Land Book, the Surveyors Book, and a County Court Order Book are still in the County Clerk's office, but nothing in the way of other records, vital statistics in particular, is known to have been saved.

However, a law had fortunately been enacted in Virginia in the early 1850's which required County Clerks to send copies of their birth, death and marriage records to the state capitol at Richmond and these records still exist, though some are in very bad condition. Some appear to have been damaged by water and on others the faded script is very difficult to read. Some names, where the paper has been folded or broken are missing or illegible.

There follows a list of 228 marriages taken from these old records, all of which took place in Boone County from 1854 to 1861. Most of these were copied directly from these old records in Richmond and the rest from photostats ordered for the Boone County Genealogical Society by its secretary, Mrs. Janet Hager. There are really two lists of the same marriages, one in which the grooms or husbands are arranged in alphabetical order and the other in which the brides or wives are arranged in the same way.

The old forms in Richmond are very large and have more information than is shown in the lists that follow. There are on these old forms columns for the insertion of the place of marriage, the residences of the bride and groom, the occupation of the groom, and the name of the minister or person performing the marriage. All of these have been omitted. There is also a column showing if the contracting parties were single or had been married and were widowed. This is indicated by a circled w following the names of widows or widowers. It seems probable that not all persons gave the correct information about their marital status.

The ages shown in marriage records cannot always be relied upon. When applying for licenses those who were quite young sometimes added some years to their actual ages, while older people sometimes deducted a few years.

All of the people listed in these 228 marriages were born before Boone County was formed. The part of present Boone County on Big Coal River was then still in Kanawha County; Pond Fork, West Fork, Spruce Fork and much of Little Coal River were still in Logan County; while parts of Horse Creek and Mud River were in Cabell County. As a result most of the persons in these marriage records show their birthplaces as Kanawha, Logan, and Cabell Counties, though they were actually born in what later became Boone County.

It appears that recording officers of the time period covered by these marriages made errors even as people of the present time, and in preparing lists of this kind one wonders if such errors should be perpetuated by copying exactly what was recorded. However, these lists are being prepared for genealogical use, to enable people of the present to connect themselves with people of the past, so some liberties have been taken in correcting spelling and other minor errors. It is believed that in all cases these corrections are supported by other records.

FROM THE PEYTONA HERALD

January 25, 1894

PIONEER OF BOONE COUNTY

"DANIEL JAVINS"

Daniel Javins, one of the early settlers of Boone County, is of German descent, born A.D. 1809. This is as near a record as we can give, for Mr. Javins does not positively know his own age. He was born near Brownstown, Kanawha County, then Virginia, now West Virginia, on what was known as the Wilcox farm.

Daniel Javins, the father of our subject took up government land and settled upon it. Indians were then numerous in this part of the country. The first settlers built a fort for their protection against the hostilities of the aborigines where the village of Brownstown now stands. After a stay of four years his father came to Big Coal river, and took up some more land at the mouth of Brush Creek, now in Peytona District, Boone County, which is now known as the John Kinder farm. His father and mother died very soon afterwards, leaving Daniel an orphan at a very tender age. He was then taken to the home of John Kinder, Sr., his half brother. (Daniel's mother married twice. Her first husband was John Henry Kinder.) Our subject lived with his half brother until he was thirteen or fourteen years of age. He then went to Kanawha river to seek employment, and happening to meet his brother Samuel, who was then employed as a captain on a steamboat which was bound for New Orleans.

This trip down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers opened to Daniel's mind new sources of knowledge, though they were not dotted here and there along their whole length with large and flourishing cities, as now. Then, (say 1822 or 1823) steam navigating on our western rivers was in an early stage. Cincinnati, now a large and opulent city was little more than a large sized town, and Louisville, Kentucky, and Vicksburg, were mere villages, and Jeffersonville, Indiana, Cairo, Illinois, and Memphis, Tennessee, now considerable cities were merely hamlets, and where are a score towns wild animals roved in freedom of unrestrained liberty.

After serving sometime on the boat the crew were unloading some machinery at Cincinnati, when a very large wheel rolled on his thigh and broke it. His brother, the captain of the boat, employed a physician and cared for him till he was able to be moved, when he was brought back to his sister, who lived on the Kanawha River.

After the crippled boy got well he obtained employment at the Salt Works on the Kanawha river. Elisha Brooks was then making salt in kettles. He was the man who made the first salt on Kanawha river. Daniel Javins afterwards returned to Big Coal river and sold his share of his father's estate to John Kinder, Sr., his half brother. He then bought a tract of land one mile below Peytona, on what is known as White Oak creek. He bought of Benjamin Byrnside, 1,100 acres for $300.00.

Our subject had three sisters, Nancy, Sallie and Margaret, and one full brother, whose name was Samuel, and, as before stated, one half brother, John Kinder, Sr.

Daniel Javins married Mary Basham, daughter of Nathan Basham in 1830, as near as we can ascertain. Mary Basham was born in 1815. She lived, after she married Daniel Javins, 26 years, making her age when she died in 1856 41 years.

Daniel and Mary (Basham) Javins had nine children--three boys and six girls, as follows:

Leander W., born December 17, 1832; Martha J., born May 11, 1834; William Mack, born Dec. 23, 1836; Francis M., born December 9, 1839; Mary E., born March 15, 1841; Nancy M., born May 21, 1843; Margaret A., born May 8, 1847; Mahala R., born August 6, 1849; Sarah E., born October 6, 1853.

The following is a list of deaths which have occurred in Daniel Javins' family:

Mary Javins (wife of Daniel) died November 16, 1856; Nancy M. died May 20, 1852; Leander W. died August 16, 1853; Sarah E. died 1854; Mahala R. died December 12, 1868.

Daniel Javins married a second time in 1857, Caroline Price, widow of Benjamin Price. Her father was Jacob Hill, who resided near the forks of Big Coal river, and she was born August 22, 1824. They were married March 8, 1857.

Daniel and Caroline (Hill) Javins had born to them four children--two boys and two girls Daniel W., born June 11, 1858; Carrie J., born April 15, 1860; Ewell T., born October 24, 1862; Theodosia E., born September 13, 1867.

For want of thorough knowledge we will give only the names of the children of the oldest son living and the first married, and the dates of marriages and to whom married of all the other children of Daniel Javins.

William McDonald Javins married Frances J. Smith, daughter of Rev. John M. Smith, March 27, 1856. There were born to them eleven children, seven sons and four daughters, namely: John Marcellus, Samuel Daniel, Amanda Rulana, Lloyd Washington, Nancy Ellen, James Thomas, Jackson Wesley, George Howard, Joshua Franklin, Sarah Margaret and Mary Rozetta.

William McDonald Javins has 29 grandchildren.

Martha J. Javins was married to Isaac P. Williams June 22, 1856. (Mr. Williams died February 9, 1882.) They had eight children--five sons and three daughters.

Mary E. Javins was married to James E. Douglass, son of Jonothan Douglass, February 8, 1866. They had ten children--three sons, seven daughters.

Francis Marion Javins married Henrietta Watts, daughter of Silas and Spicey (Harless) Watts. They had four sons: William E., Silas Marion, Ewell Thomas, and Elliott Sylvester.

Francis Marion Javins married again. His second wife was Mary Ann Adkins, daughter of Wilson Adkins. They had two children: Daniel Winford, and Mary Alice. So Francis Marion Javins was the father of six children.

Margaret Ann Javins married William Wesley Harless, April 18, 1867. They had nine children--five sons and four daughters.

Daniel Watts Javins married Mary C. Clendenin, daughter of Griffin Clendenin, October 17, 1879. They had six children.

Carrie J. Javins married Thomas J. Epling, son of Leonard Epling, February 3, 1878. They had five children--one son and four daughters.

Euell T. Javins married Elizabeth J. Smith, daughter of Robin Smith, June 24, 1882. They had five children--two sons and three daughters.

Theodosia E. Javins married Dryden B. Stone, son of John Stone, March 13, 1884. They had five children.

Daniel Javins has had born to him 13 children, 65 grand children and 51 great grand children.

Like all the other old pioneers our subject has experienced the joys and sorrows inseparable from pioneer life--the bitter was mingled with the sweet. He toiled very hard many years, to rightly bring up and support his large family. He was a very successful farmer.

When Daniel Javins settled on White Oak there was an abundance of wild game, such as bears, deer, turkeys, etc. The writer heard him tell of an incident that happened some years after he settled on White Oak creek. He said that, early one morning he heard a hog squealing on the point above his house. He quickly reached for his rifle, which he always kept in readiness, and hastened toward the noise made by the hog, and soon came in sight of a very large bear walking on his hind feet carrying the hog clenched in his fore paws. The bear squeezed the hog so tightly that it could not squeal while the wild beast was waddling along with his heavy burden, but as soon as the bear stopped to take breath he relaxed his hold, when the hog squealed with all his might. Mr. Javins said that he watched the bear a few moments and as soon as he could take a sure aim and shot the bear in the breast, and as the rifle ball entered his heart the bear gave out a loud shriek and fell dead. Not stopping to see what damage he had done to Bruin he put the rifle on his shoulder and hastily started back to the house for more ammunition. He had not gone far when he met his little son, William Mack, who was only five years old, so they came back to the house together. Telling his wife what had happened she accompanied him back for fear the bear was only crippled. But they were soon half convinced that old Bruin was dead. Yet, he cautiously approached and when within shooting distance, by persuasion of his wife, he plugged another ball into the prostrate beast. He always kept in store the meat of wild animals till they all disappeared from the section of the country.

Daniel Javins was always a good citizen, and held some important offices after county was struck off from Kanawha. He was a member of the board of supervisors of Boone county, a member of the board of education, overseer of the poor and trustee of schools. He was a very pious old gentleman. He united with the Baptist church about 53 years ago, and was in the organization of the Peytona Baptist church 47 ago. He always has been a liberal man in donating to the ministrations of the gospel. He has paid as high as fifteen dollars per year for some successive years. His door was always open to the ministers of the gospel, whom he most willingly kept and cared for, as well as many people attending church from a distance. He was always punctual in attendance upon divine service till extreme old age overtook him, and his seat was never vacant except when sickness prevented attendance. Rev. C. J. Rippetoe, while visiting this church last year, remarked that there was a vacant seat in the congregation which did not seem natural to him, as he had preached for the Peytona church eight years, and during all that time never, in his recollection, was old Father Javins absent.

The old gentleman had grown so frail and stricken down with disease that, of late years, it had been impossible for him to attend church. His decline has been very gradual for years, till he has become almost helpless, and is growing weaker and weaker day by day. He and his aged wife (Caroline) occupy a house by themselves. And she is also afflicted in her old age; yet in her weakness she cares for her old partner, losing many a night's rest, and laboring through the day.

They twain are "only waiting now for the summons to call them up higher, where old age, disease and death never come."

HE IS DEAD

Born in 1809--Died March 30, 1894. Uncle Daniel Javins is dead. After suffering on the bed of affliction for ten long months he quietly passed to rest on the morning of the 30th at 2 o'clock a.m.

Father Javins was born near Brownstown, Kanawha county, in the year 1809, which would make him 85 years of age at the time of his death.

Below is a short account of the death of Father Javins written by his son and son-in-law:

Father Javins quietly fell asleep in the arms of Jesus Friday morning, March 30th. It was our sad privilege to be with him his last sickness, and it seems as though I never hated to see a man suffer as bad as I did Father Javins. He bore it all with the patience of a martyr.

He was confined to his room ten months, though growing weaker all the time, he was able to sit up, more or less, until the very morning of his death.

For sometime before his death he was not in his right mind, although he realized that he was in a hand to hand conflict with man's greatest enemy, Death, with the odds against him, but hopeful that he might get well again. He was anxious and ambitious to live, he had a keen interest in life and its sacred duties. It seemed that he thought his work was not yet done, he believed it was his solemn duty to live if he could, but was not rebellious against God's will.

We were perfectly satisfied as to his preparation and readiness to meet his God, and did not deem it wise to question his hopefulness by talking of death to him. The night before he died he sat up in the bed and sang those beautiful lines:

I'm going home to die no more,
I'm going there to see my friends;
I'm going there no more to suffer,
I'm going there to see my Savior.
I'm going there to wear the starry crown.
I love to see my Savior coming;
I love to see my Savior coming;
I'm going there no more to suffer,
I'm going there to play on the golden harp.

And when he finished singing those lines he called to us that were sitting by to come and sing for him and we sang several hymns, and he seemed to enjoy it very much, and then he said: "Let us lie down and rest." On Thursday morning while sitting in his chair he said to his faithful wife: "What do you think about going home?" and she replied: "I am ready at any time to go home." And he said to the rest that were present: "Only three more days, I want you all to have your shoes ready," meaning that he had only three days to live. His words came true for in three days from that time he was dead. And his last words on earth were:

"My work is finished, let us be going, FAREWELL! FAREWELL!"

This with a heroic resignation like that of Moses and an unflinching faith of Paul. Assuring us that his bodily suffering had already ceased, he quietly departed to be with CHRIST.

Father Javins leaves nine children; and a loving wife to mourn his loss. But let them be comforted; for well do we realize that their loss is Heaven's gain.

T. J. Epling, son-in-law

From THE PEYTONA HERALD--April 5, 1894

In the death of Father Javins, the Baptist church at this place received a severe shock, she has lost one of her oldest and best members. He belonged to the Peytona church 37 years, and has ever been a grand stake in the church. After a sever spell of sickness he passed away.

He was waited on by his children at night and his faithful wife by day.

A few days before he died he said to me that he must go home for he could not rest here. He said, "I want to go to my blessed Savior, I want to go to blessed Jesus. I am going to wear a crown. Glory to my soul!" I am going home to die no more."

He told us all to sing, for it might be the last opportunity, and to make use of it and I sang, "The sun above us gleaming," and he said: "That would never wear away, and that he had heard Old Bro. Joshua Mitchell, sing it many years ago, and that if any one would do as commanded in the beautiful song, there would one day be a great rejoicing.

On the 28th of March, he told his faithful wife that he had to go, and wanted her to go with him, and on the night of the 29th, he told me that he must be going that he did not want to stay where he could not rest." On the night of the 30th, after wearing all night up till one o'clock, he called to his son William and told him to help him up, when he called for water, after drinking the water he asked to be put back in bed, and when in bed he said:

"William, my work is done . I must be going."

At 2 o'clock he closed his eyes and went home, to rest with all the redeemed, and to wear a crown that await all the faithful.

E.T.Javins, son

The foregoing account of the family of Daniel Javins represents one of the very few instances of historic material having been published about a Boone County family prior to 1900, and the Boone County Genealogical Society is fortunate in being able to reproduce it for those who do not have copies of the long-discontinued county newspaper in which it appeared.

However the information it contains is limited to the members of one family group known to the author, who had no opportunity to examine U. S. census records or other records now available to the researcher. It seems appropriate then to supplement his excellent account with family listings from Boone County census records of 1850, 1860, 1870, and 1880, and in turn to supplement or add to them with material taken from marriage or other local records.

In the Boone County census of 1850 the family appears as follows:

Daniel Javins	Age 38	Son of Daniel Javins, Sr. & Mary Margaret(Kinder)Javins
Mahala Javins (or Mary) (or Polly)	Age 38	Daughter of Nathan Sr. & Mary Basham
Leander Javins	Age 16	Died 8-19-1853
Martha Javins	Age 15	Married Isaac E., son of Isaac, Sr. & Frances Williams
William Javins	Age 14	Married Frances J., Daughter of Rev. John M. & Nancy (Toney) Smith
Francis Marion Javins	Age 12	Married 1, Henrietta, Daughter of Silas & Spicey (Harless) Watts. Married 2. Mary Ann, Daughter of Wilson and Elizabeth (Miller) Adkins.
Mary E. Javins	Age 10	Married James E., son of Jonathan and Sarah (Fisher) Douglas.
Nancy Javins	Age 7	Died 5-2-1852
Margaret Javins	Age 3	Married William Wesley, son of Leroy & Sarah (Douglas) Harless.
Mahala Javins	Age 1	Died 1867 (single)

Family records show that one more child was born to Daniel and Mahala (or Mary or Polly) Javins. Sarah Javins was born in 1853, but she must have died in infancy as her name does not appear in any later public records. Mahala (or Mary or Polly) died in 1856, and a year later Daniel married Caroline Price, widow of Benjamin Price and daughter of Jacob and Sarah (Thomas) Hill, who lived near the forks of Coal River. She had five children who lived in the household of Daniel Javins from that time until they married and established households of their own.

In the 1860 census of Boone County this family is listed as follows:

Daniel Javins	Age 50
Caoline Javins	Age 36	Daughter of Jacob and Sarah (Thomas) Hill, who was widow of Benjamin Price.
Francis Marion Javins	Age 21	Mar. 1. Henrietta Watts. 2. Mary Ann Adkins.
Mary E. Javins	Age 18	Married James E. Douglas
Margaret Javins	Age 13	Married William Wesley Harless
Mahala R. Javins	Age 10	Died 1867 (Single)
Daniel W. Javins	Age 2	Mar. Mary C., Daughter of Griffin and Rebecca Clendenen
Caroline Javins	Age 1 mo.	Mar. Thomas J., son of Leonard and Phoebe Epling.
Nancy Jane Price	Age 15
Vernon J. Price	Age 13
James B. Price	Age 11
Victoria Price	Age 9
Morris Price	Age 7

The last five were children of Caroline by her marriage to Benjamin Price. Two year old Daniel W. and month-old Caroline were children of Daniel and Caroline (Hill) Javins.

It will be seen that the two oldest living children of Daniel and Mahala (or Mary or Polly) Javins are no longer in the household, the reason being that they were now married and had households of their own. In the 1860 census they are listed as follows:

Anzanetta F. Williams Age 6 mo.

Daniel S. Javins Age 2

Morris Price Age 17

Married Dryden, son of John and Eliza J. A. (Barker) Stone.

46

Daniel Javins are listed in the Boone 1870 census and appear as follows:

Isaac P. Williams	Age 39
Martha J. Williams	Age 35	Daughter of Daniel & Mahala (or Mary or Polly) (Basham) Javins
Ewell W. Williams	Age 11
Angenatha Williams	Age 10	Married George W. Adkins
Isaac E. Williams	Age 8
Armelia F. Williams	Age 5
Daniel Williams	Age 3
<hr/>
William M. Javins	Age 38	Son of Daniel and Mahala (or Mary or Polly) (Basham) Javins.
Frances J. Javins	Age 31	* Dau. John & Nancy (Toney) Smith
John M. Javins	Age 13	Married Mary J., daughter of James C. and Martha (Price) Greybeal.
Daniel F. Javins	Age 11	Married Emma V., daughter of William C. and Adelia F. Ryan.
Amanda R. Javins	Age 9	Married Vernon J., son of Benjamin and Caroline (Hill) Price.
Floyd W. Javins	Age 7
Nancy E. Javins	Age 6	Married James, son of James and Ann (Atkins) Kinder.
James T. Javins	Age 3	Married 1. M. A. Barker. 2. Mary L. Carpenter.
Jackson Javins	Age 2
George H. Javins	Age 3 mo.	* Married Lucy B., Daughter of Samuel and Rachel (Smith) Kinder. Lucy dau. Wm. Anderson Barker and Rachel Smith Raised by Samuel Kinder as his dau.

Francis Marion Javins	Age 30	Son of Daniel and Mahala (or Mary or Polly) (Basham) Javins.
Henrietta (Watts) Javins	Age 20	Daughter of Silas & Spicey Watts.
William E. Javins	Age 8 mo.	Married Electa Ann Keeney

William W. Harless	Age 25
Margaret A. Harless	Age 22	Daughter of Daniel and Mahala (or Mary or Polly) (Basham) Javins.
Angenora C. Harless	Age 2
Mary K. Harless	Age 1 mo.

The last U. S. census records of Boone County that are available as this is written are those for the year 1880. In them is the following material relating to Daniel Javins and his descendants:

Daniel Javins	Age 67
Caroline Javine	Age 56
Ewell F. Javins	Age 18
Theodosia Javins	Age 12

It will be seen here that by 1880 the two older children of the marriage of Daniel Javins and Caroline (Hill) Price had also left the parental home and established homes of their own, and only the two youngest ones were left. Census records of Daniel's descendants in 1880 are as follows:

Isaac P. Williams	Age 49
Martha J. Williams	Age 45	Daughter of Daniel and Mahala (or Mary or Polly) (Basham) Javins.
Wilbur Williams	Age 22
Angenatha Williams	Age 20
Isaac E. Williams	Age 18
Armelia F. Williams	Age 15
Daniel M. Williams	Age 12
E. Williams	Age 10
C. B. Williams	Age 7
T. E. Williams	Age 3

(In this census Ewell W. and Isaac E., of this family, are listed as staying with J. C. Graybeal. As may be seen above Isaac E. is also listed at home and it seems certain that Ewell W. and Wilbur are the same person, so it is a case of double listing.)

William M. C. Javins Age 44 Son of Daniel & Mahala (or Mary or Polly) (Basham)
Javins.

Frances K. Javins Age 44
Lloyd W. Javins Age 17

The following article was taken from THE MADISON RECORDER, a weekly newspaper printed in Madison, W. Va. It was taken from Vol. 16, No. 45 dated Jan. 7, 1938. The article concerns one of the grandsons of Daniel and Mahala Javins.:

S. M. JAVINS DIES AFTER TWO DAYS' ILLNESS OF PNEUMONIA

Friend and Patron of Long Standing Passes Away

In our last issue of the year on December 24, we expressed the hope that our friends and patrons would have an enjoyable Christmas, and that nothing would occur during the holiday week to mar the happiness which usually comes at that season.

However, that could not be. We were shocked and grieved to learn of the death of S. M. Javins, of Peytona, a friend and patron of long standing.

"Bud", as he was familiarly known by friends, was not only active in business, but was a leader in Republican politics. His party will miss his leadership and advice in the future.

This paper was not issued last week, when a report of the death of Mr. Javins should have appeared. However, we quote the report of the death from the Gazette and the comment of the Coal Valley News of last week as follows:

S. M. Javins, 65, of Peytona, prominent lumberman and farmer, died Saturday night, December 25, at home of pneumonia after a two days' illness.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Matilda Javins, six daughters, Mrs. C. H. Nelson, of Fayetteville; Mrs. R. S. Kinder, of Madison; Mrs. W. C. Halstead, of Oak Hill; and Mrs. Opie Gore and Ella and Edith Javins of Peytona, and a son, Harry Javins of Ottawa.

Members of the Odd Fellows lodge were active pallbearers at the funeral service at noon Tuesday at home. Interment was in the family cemetery. Honorary pallbearers included J. W. Thompson, C. W. Conner, George Estep, Siegel Workman, Walter S. Hallanan, L. S. Echols, James Abshire, Dell McNeeley, M. L. Jones, G. W. Mitchell, Milton Meadows, C. W. Halstead, Griff Jarrell, George Clendenin, M. A. Byrnside, Joseph Holstein, H. G. Shaffer, H. W. B. Mullins, E. E. White, Dell Hill, C. W. Lewis, L. C. Carson, B. D. Banks.--Gazette.

In the death of Bud Javins, Boone County has lost one of its most influential men. During the thirty years of our acquaintance, we found him always a man of intelligence, conscience, sound judgment and unflinching courage. While a successful farmer and lumberman, he shone brightest as a citizen, a school man, and a family man. Among his leading successes we would mention the rearing of one of the best families in the county, and his unusual success as president of the Board of Education of Peytona District. This was feat in financing seldom, if ever, equaled in Boone County.

It is not to be assumed that Bud was always right; for no man is that, but he stood as a stone wall for what he thought was right. His death came as a shock. When seen in Madison some two weeks back, he seemed in excellent health. We hope to meet again. Goodby.--Coal Valley News.

EDITOR'S NOTE

After the preceding account of the Javins family had been submitted by Edith E. Javins to the editor, Mrs. Janet Hager, secretary of the Society, received a letter from Meldon J. Wolfgang, of Albany, N. Y., which contains data about Daniel Javins Sr., father of the Daniel Javins that Miss Javins wrote about in her history of the family. Excerpts from Mr. Wolfgang's letter follow:

The Kanawha County Deed Books show the following:
1808 Book C, p. 291 Daniel Javins leases 50 ac. on Coal River from Leonard Morris. 1815 Daniel Javins buys interest in 140 ac. on Coal River from John Hester. Book D, p. 357. 1815 Book D, p. 484, Daniel Javins buys 140 ac. on Coal River from Leonard Morris.

Daniel Javins first appears on the personal property Tax lists of Kanawha County in 1796. His last appearance was on the list of 29 April, 1818. His estate was appraised during the November 1818 Court term (Book F, p. 35). His estate sale was reported to the Court on 12 January, 1919. Purchasers were: Thomas Law, Nancy Javins. Nathan Turley, John Holstein, Margaret Javins, Thomas Linville, John Miller, Henry Holstein, Henry Kinder, Joseph Byrneside, Pointdexter Toney, Jacob Welch, Samuel Javins, John Dolin, Isaac Barker, and Jacob Miller.

- - The only other Javins families in Virginia are the Javins of Fairfax County and Alexandria City. - - - in the 1850 Virginia census there are 9 Javins families; one is Daniel Jr. of Boone County, another is Rebecca of Dinwiddie County, five others are in Fairfax County, and two others in neighboring Alexandria City. To me, these patterns indicate that Daniel Sr. came from the Fairfax County area and may possibly be the son or grandson of Joseph Javins, who unfortunately died intestate. (Ca. 1760)

These excerpts suggest that Daniel Javins Sr. was on Big Coal River in 1808, as early as those who are said to have been the first settlers in the area. They show too that he did not take up "government" land but acquired his property by lease and purchase from Leonard Morris, who lived at present Marmet, and after whom Lens Creek was named. They confirm too that Daniel Javins Sr. died when his son Daniel was a child. His death occurred between April 29 and November, 1818.

U. S. 1850 CENSUS OF BOONE VOUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA

In 1790 the United States took the first census of its people and they have been taken at ten year intervals since that time. At the time of the first census, and also the second one, taken in 1800, present Boone County was still a part of Kanawha County, and as far as is known, no people were living in it. Records of both of these censuses were destroyed when the British burned the capitol in Washington in retaliation for American troops having burned the capitol of Upper Canada, during the War of 1812.

Cabell County was formed in 1809 and originally included all of present Boone lying west of Spruce Fork and most of its area west of Little Coal River. The Cabell 1810 census was also destroyed in the fire mentioned above, but the Kanawha census of 1810 is in existence. County boundaries were the same in 1820 and census records of both Kanawha and Cabell exist.

Logan County was formed in 1824 and originally included nearly all of present Boone that is drained by Little Coal River and its tributaries. All of its area on Big Coal River remained in Kanawha County, while a small part of it stayed in Cabell County. This was the situation when the 1830 census was taken and it was the same at the time of the 1840 census. Records of both of these census in all three counties are in existence. While all of these census records can be examined the only names shown are those of heads of households. Other members of the household were roughly grouped by age and sex without any indication of relationship to each other or to the head of the household, though certain inferences can be made from the groupings.

New policies were initiated in the census of 1850. Families were given numbers in the order in they were visited or recorded. The names and ages of all free persons were shown but no such record was kept of slaves. This was also the first census of Boone after it became a county, and it had the same boundaries then as now except that it took in Main Mud River and its tributaries down to and including Big Creek.

For these reasons the Boone County Genealogical Society will publish this census, the first half here and the second half in the next issue of this publication. In the compilation that follows the visitation numbers of the families and the names and ages of individuals have been taken from U. S. 1850 census records. Following the name of each individual is such genealogical information as has been found which relates to him or her. All such information has been obtained from sources other than U. S. census records. In it certain abbreviations have been used to save space, such as M for "married", S or s for "son of", D or d for "daughter of", D or d, followed by a date for time of death, etc. It is believed that these will be readily understood.

THE COMERS OF SHENANDOAH

(COMER, COMMER, COMBER, KOMER, KOMMER, KOMBER)

Early Virginia records indicate that there were two separate Comer families that settled in Virginia. One family settled in Halifax County and the other in the Shenandoah Valley in the part that is now Page County, but at that time was known as Augusta County.

A deed is recorded in Augusta on April 14, 1746, which transferred 271 acres of land, located on a branch of Hawksbill Creek at Stoneyman (approximately 4 miles S. E. of Luray), from Peter Ruffner to Xstopher Comber (i. e. Christopher Comer). This land was a portion of a tract which Peter Ruffner had purchased from Francis Thornton, the recipient of the original grant located on the west side of Thornton's Gap of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

It is believed that Christopher, like all the other German-Swiss pioneers of the Shenandoah Valley, landed at Philadelphia or Baltimore, passed through the Lancaster and York County areas of Pennsylvania, then crossed the Potomac near Harper's Ferry, and down into the Valley of Virginia.

The area near Stoneyman is slightly rolling, excellent farming land, and affords a very good view of the Blue Ridge Mountains, which are only a few miles away. The original land, or a portion thereof, appears to have remained in the Comer family and a farm in this location is today (1971) owned by Harry Comer, a descendant of Michael Comer, Senior.

According to tradition (related by Harry Comer in 1971), Christopher Comer and his two oldest sons, Adam and Michael Senior, were born in Germany. This appears to be true as Adam's signatures on all documents so far observed have been in German. Christopher may also have had other sons born in this country, see Martin and Stofley in the census reports. Neither one was a son of either Adam S. or Michael, Sr.

The early Comers were quite prolific and it becomes very difficult to sort out the third generation. This is further complicated by their tendency to use the same names over and over. Christopher, Christian, Adam, Martin, Michael, John, and Samuel were especially favored.

Records of the Mt. Calvary Church, originally called Comer's Church, have been translated from the German. This is a good source of information on the Comers who remained in the Shenandoah Valley in the 1800's. One copy of these records is in the Page County Library and the other is owned by Harry Comer, who had the records translated and takes care of the church.

One of the older records of Shenandoah County has the name Christopher spelled "Christophel", which suggests that the Comer family may have come from Switzerland at some time.

The Will of Michael Comer Sr. is on file at Woodstock, in Shenandoah County, Virginia. Michael died in 1802 and was the son of Christopher Comer. Michael, Senior's wife was Catherine, last name unknown. From this Will Michael Jr. appears to be the oldest because he inherited the farm, but it also names his other children.

The children of Michael Senior were:

Name	Born	Died	Married	Spouse

Adam Comer Sr. the son of Christopher Comer, died in Shenandoah County in 1801. His wife's name was Margaret and it is known that they had at least three sons:

Phillip
Fredrick

Adam Jr. b. 1775, died c. 1860 wife Eliz.

Adam Jr. and his family moved to Ohio in 1820, where he died in Jackson County.

Most of the above information was taken from notes prepared by Henry R. Smith, of Springfield, Virginia, a direct descendant of Adam Comer jr.

Heads of Families, Virginia, The Government Printing Office, Washington, 1908, has the following Comer entries:

MONROE COUNTY COMERS

Augustine (Augustus) Comer, son of Michael and Catherine Comer, was born on Rapidan River, just east of the Shenandoah Valley. He enlisted in Washington's Army on Easter Monday, 1776, and served four and one-half years under Captain Langley, Twelfth Virginia Regiment, Continental Establishment, Colonel Neville, and General Scott. He took part in the fighting at Brandywine, Germantown, Monmouth, Stony Point, and Charleston, South Carolina. While the Americans were in camp on Assanpink Creek at Trenton, New Jersey, Augustine was placed on guard duty with orders to hail any strange persons three times, and then to fire unless answered. An officer, who thought he would have some fun with Augustine and stampede him, got down to the brink of the creek and threw firebrands. Augustine was alarmed but obeyed his orders and fired, wounding the officer. He was placed under arrest but exonerated by Washington, who complimented him for his faithfulness.

After the war Augustine married Catherine (Cortreen) Rush and located at St. Lawrence Ford on Greenbrier River, in what was then Greenbrier but is now Monroe County, West Virginia. Records of Shenandoah County show that Augustine Comer and Catherine Rush were lawfully married by publishment either April 22 or 23, 1782. Augustine filed for his Revolutionary War pension in 1819 and it was issued the same year. He died in 1822. The widow, age 60 in 1820, died April 11, 1841, at the age of 81 years. His heirs filed claim in 1847 for additional benefits and they were eventually paid. The claim was supported by statements of Jacob Comer, John Comer, John Peters, Sally Peters, Elizabeth C. Miller, Barbara Comer, Fredrick Comer, Michael Comer, and Catherine C. Ball of Logan County.

Most of the above information was taken from notes prepared by Mrs. R. F. Cantrell of Charleston, West Virginia, a direct descendant of Augustine Comer. Also, Mrs. Cantrell was the first lady to Join the Daughters of the American Revolution under Augustine's banner!

The children of Augustine and Catherine (Rush) Comer were:

Name	Born	Died	Married	Spouse

Fredrick	10/16/1787	11/10/1848	1/6/1811	Polly Mitchell

Elizabeth Comer, the first child of Augustinem married Daniel Miller, son of John and Barbara (Mauzey) Miller. They settled on Turtle Creek in what is now Boone County, where Elizabeth died Sept. 25, 1853. Their children were Daniel, George Sr., "Fork" John, Jacob, Augustus, William, Barbara Halstead, Elizabeth Hill, Rhoda Hill, and Nancy Miller, all of whom lived in Boone County.

Fredrick Comer, the second child of Augustine, was born in Greenbrier County, near the St. Lawrence Ford. He married Polly Mitchell, daughter of Joshua and Elizabeth (Stigard) Mitchell, January 6, 1814. She was born June 11, 1796, near Union, which is today the county seat of Monroe County, West Virginia. They purchased 120 acres of land in the forest called Flatwoods and built a cabin, where they moved in 1814, and lived the rest of their natural lives. They added an additional 280 acres as time went by. They raised a large family of fourteen children, eleven girls and three boys. Fredrick Comer died November 10, 1848, age 61 years and 24 days. Polly (Mitchell) Comer died March 17, 1867, age 70 years, 8 months, and 6 days. Both are buried at Wikel, Monroe County, West Virginia, in the same graveyard as Joshua and Elizabeth (Stigard) Mitchell.

The children of Fredrick and Polly (Mitchell) Comer were:

Jacob Comer, the third child of Augustine and Catherine (Rush) Comer, married Anna Meadows and they lived in Mercer County, West Virginia. We have no record of his children but the 1850 census of Mercer County lists him, Anna, his wife, and Elizabeth Meadows, 21; Lewis Reins, 14; and George Pawley, 10. These may have been his grandchildren, or wards of the Court that he was caring for.

Catherine, the fourth child of Augustine and Catherine (Rush) Comer, married Joseph Ball Sr. and settled on Hewett Creek in what is now Boone County, West Virginia. Their children were Nancy, Augustus, Joseph Jr., Rebecca, John F., Jacob, James A., and Reuben, all of whom lived in Boone County except Joseph Jr., who moved to Ball Fork of Hewett Creek in Logan County.

Michael, the fifth child of Augustine and Catherine (Rush) Comer, married Lucy Wills. We have no further data.

Barbara, their sixth child, had one daughter, Lucinda

Augustus, the seventh child of Augustine and Catherine (Rush) Comer, married Sara Fore and moved to Nicholas County, West Virginia.

Sarah, also called Sally, the eighth child of Augustine and Catherine (Rush) Comer, married John Peters. We have no further information.

John, the ninth child of Augustine and Catherine (Rush) Comer, married Mary Jane Mitchell, the daughter of Joshua and Elizabeth (Stigard) Mitchell. They settled in Mercer County, West Virginia, and according to the 1850 census of Mercer had the following children: Wallace, Jacob, Levi, John, James, William, Augustus, and Martha.

It is interesting to note that the fourth and fifth children of *Fredrick Comer . . . the twins, Elizabeth and Catherine, married twin brothers, Isaac Newton Harvey and Jacob White Harvey, sons of Joshua and Sarah (Swope) Harvey. The children of this Catherine and Jacob White Harvey were:

Mary Elizabeth Harvey, married Jonathan Calvin Harvey.
Overton Harvey, married Elmira Summer.
Jacob Harvey, married Margaret Meadows.
Newton Harvey, married Julina Ferguson.
Adam Harvey, married Leck (Leckie) Gadd.
Nancy Harvey, married James (Jim) Harvey.
Fredrick Harvey, married Addie Clark.

The children of Elizabeth (daughter of *Fredrick and *Polly (Mitchell) Comer) and Isaac Newton Harvey were:

EDITOR'S NOTE:

The name Comer is virtually unknown in Boone County but in the foregoing article Mr. Richardson shows that all of the numerous Ball family in Boone County, and a large proportion of the Millers on Turtle Creek in the same county, and also other persons, number Augustine, or Augustus Comer, a soldier of the Revolutionary War, among their ancestors. In this article the form "Augustine" is used which is the way his name appears in military records. In land records the form "Augustus" is used and he may have preferred that form, as he had a son and four grandsons named Augustus. Among the latter were Augustus Miller and Augustus Ball of Boone County.

In addition to those named in the foregoing article, some other descendants of Augustus Comer came to Boone County. About 1860 Adam Miller, son of Adam and Letha (Canterbury) Miller of Monroe County, came there. His wife was Martha, daughter of Fredrick Comer and granddaughter of Augustus Comer. This family did not stay long in Boone before moving to the part of Hewett Creek in Logan County, but soon disappeared from there. Their known children were: Anderson M., who married Mary Yantis, daughter of Zacheus & Lurecia Elkins; Wm. Riley; Nancy Jane, who married Robert E., son of Isaac and Dolly Morgan; John S.; Maria V.; and Letha E.

Also coming to Boone soon after the Civil War was Levi Comer, son of John and Jane (Mitchell) Comer, and grandson of Augustus Comer, and his wife Lucinga. Their known children were; Henry A., who married Medora, daughter of David and Almeda (Scott) Harless; Mary S., who married Thomas B., son of Patterson and Editha Perdue; Elizabeth J., who married Gilbert G. Curry; John C; Gerald Levi; and William A., who married L. L. Johnson.

The military record of Augustine Comer mentions the battles in which he participated, among them Stony Point, and the editor thinks that more should be said about it as it was one of the greatest feats ever accomplished by American soldiers in any war. Stony Point is a rocky, narrow-necked peninsula jutting into Hudson River above New York City, with a marsh on one side that is impassable except at the lowest tide, and water on the other side. It had been heavily fortified by the British and had an ample garrison. It completely controlled traffic on the Hudson River and the British regarded it as impregnable.

Washington had a plan for capturing it but it was thought to have so little chance of success that only a madman would try it. However, Gen Anthony Wayne volunteered to try it and that is how he got his nickname of "Mad" Anthony Wayne. On July 16, 1779, conditions were exactly right. He had a small part of his force pretend they were attacking Stony Point over the narrow neck of land that connected it with the shore but he took his main force to the side on which the marsh lay. There he had all of his men unload their muskets and fix bayonets. Each man pinned a piece of white cloth on the back of his uniform so that he could be seen by the man behind him. The night was dark and when the tide was at its lowest Wayne started his men wading across the marsh. As no guns were loaded no shots were fired and they reached Stony Point without being seen and silently climbed over its walls and before the British knew what was going on they were swarming all over it, using their bayonets. The fight was short but vicious and the British soon surrendered.

American casualties were 15 killed and 83 wounded. British losses were 20 killed, 75 wounded, and more than 500 were taken prisoners. It was a victory that was very important to the Americans.

Gen. Wayne received many well deserved honors for this and other accomplishments, among them having a West Virginia county named after him, but men like Augustus Comer, who for many years suffered untold hardships in the cause of freedom for our country, are deserving of honors and recognition also. For them wading to their armpits through a marsh, scaling the walls of a strong fort held by well trained soldiers, and capturing it by the use of the bayonets attached to their empty muskets was only an incident of that long struggle, but instead of having been honored most of them now lie in unknown graves, forgotten even by most of their descendants.

THE DESCENDANTS OF SAMUEL AND PATSEY PAULEY

BOONE COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA

By Sigfus Olafson

Families that were in Virginia quite early, and which had numerous members, are very difficult to trace, and the custom of naming children after their grandparents, or other relatives, adds further confusion with the same names recurring from generation to generation. In some respects this is descriptive of the Pauley family. In addition to this one is always confronted by the scarcity of records.

As this is written the origin of the Pauley family is not definitely known. A colony of French Huguenots in South Carolina had families in it that spelled their names "Faulet" and pronounced them as we do "Pauley". Some of these Faulet families were in southern Virginia by the middle 1700's, but it seems unlikely that they were ancestors of the Pauleys in Boone County and adjacent regions as it appears that Pauleys who spelled their name in the conventional way were in Virginia as early as the French Faulets, and perhaps earlier.

There were several Pauley families in Pittsylvania County, Virginia, quite early, and soon after the year 1800 some of them moved into Kanawha County, settling on Lower Coal River and in various parts of the Kanawha Valley, and some spread into Boone County. Determining the relationship of these various families to each other is most difficult and perhaps the most simple way to do it is to select one of the early ones and record his descendants as completely as possible, and then choose another and repeat the process. When this has been done a few times perhaps a clearer picture will emerge.

This is precisely what will be attempted here and for this purpose we selected Samuel Pauley who has several descendants living in Boone County as this is written. In 1811 this Samuel Pauley and Patsy Hill were married by Rev. John Lee, this being the first Pauley marriage recorded in Kanawha County. The record does not show the ages or birthplaces of either of the parties to this marriage, nor the names of their parents. From other records it is known that Samuel Pauley was born in Pittsylvania County, Virginia, but later census records are not in exact agreement about the time of his birth, some placing it in 1792 and others in 1790. The latter may be more nearly right. His wife Patsy died in the 1840's, before U. S. census records showed exact ages, but it is clearly shown that she was younger than her husband. Incidentally, at that time Patsy was rarely used as a given name but very commonly used as a nickname for Martha. It is possible then that her name was Martha Hill, but Patsy seems to appear in all the records.

Perhaps soon after their marriage Samuel and Patsy Pauley moved to what is now Boone County, settling on Pond Fork about eight miles from Madison, but there is some evidence that this did not take place until about 1825. Samuel Pauley and his family are in the 1820 census of Kanawha County but Pond Fork was still in Kanawha County at that time, so they would have been in that county whether on Pond Fork or at an earlier home.

Logan County was formed in 1824 and originally included all of Pond Fork, as well as most of the watershed of Little Coal River that is now in Boone County. Samuel Pauley is not in its first list of taxpayers, dated 1824, suggesting that he had not yet come to Pond Fork. However, he and his family are in the 1830 census of Logan County, proving beyond doubt that they were living there by that time.

The 1820 census of Kanawha County shows that Samuel and Patsy Pauley had three sons and two daughters at that time, all under the age of ten. Ten years later the 1830 census of Logan County shows them with four sons and four daughters, of whom a son and a daughter were in the 0 to 5 year age bracket, a second like pair in the 5 to 10 year bracket, a third like pair in the 10 to 15 year age bracket, and a fourth like pair in the 15 to 20 year age bracket. When the Logan County 1840 census was taken some of their children were married and in households of their own but four were still at home, a son and two daughters in the 15 to 20 year age bracket, and a son in the 20 to 30 year bracket. In this census Samuel Pauley is in the 60 to 70 year bracket, and the oldest female in the household, presumed to be his wife patsy, is in the 40 to 50 year age bracket.

By the way of explanation it may be said that in the U. S. 1840 census, and all earlier U. S. census records, the only name that appears is that of the head of the household, its other members being grouped by age and sex. In the census records cited here for 1820, 1830, and 1840, Samuel Pauley appeared as the head of a household, and it has been presumed that the female in the highest age bracket was his wife Patsy and that those in the low age brackets or groups were their children. It is likely that this is entirely right but there is always the possibility that a person other than a child could have been in the household.

Boone County was formed in 1847 from parts of Kanawha, Logan, and Cabell Counties, and the Pond Fork area, where Samuel Pauley lived, has since then been in it. The first U. S. census of Boone County was taken in 1850, and was the first such census to show the names and ages of all free persons. Patsy Pauley, the wife of Samuel Pauley, does not appear in this census, so it appears to be certain that she died before it was taken. Her place of burial is presently unknown.

When this 1850 census was taken all the children of Samuel and Patsy Pauley were married, and Samuel was living with his daughter Hannah who had married Preston P. Linville, and was living at the mouth of Lick Creek of Pond Fork. Probably in 1855 Samuel Pauley married Polly Tucker, born in Giles County, Virginia, in 1822, who was a maid in the home of his daughter, Elizabeth Canterbury, at the time the 1850 census was taken. During or soon after the Civil War Samuel Pauley moved to near Frame, in Kanawha County, where two of his children were then living. Samuel and his son John appear in the 1870 census of Kanawha County, but not his second wife, Mary.

A list of the descendants of Samuel and Patsy Pauley will and will be carried down to about 1880. In it the names of their children will be preceded by a Roman numeral; the names of their grandchildren by an Arabic numeral; the names of their great-grandchildren by a capital letter; and the names of such of their great-great-grandchildren as may be listed, by a small letter.

The children of Samuel and Patsy Pauley were:

- I. Squire Pauley, born 1812, married Catherine, daughter of James and Lucy (Ferrell) Brown, lived on West Fork.
- II. Hannah Pauley, born 1814, married Preston P., son of Thomas and Sarah Linville, lived at the mouth of Lick Creek of Pond Fork.
- III. Dolly Polly, born 1816, married William, son of James and Lucy (Ferrell) Brown, lived at the mouth of Brown's Branch of West Fork.
- IV. Daniel Pauley, born 1817, married Cynthia, daughter of Samuel and Florence (Perry) Canterbury, moved to Frame in Kanawha County about 1855.
- V. Joseph Pauley, born 1820, married Julia Ann, daughter of John and Catherine (Tabor) Ferrell, lived on Pond Fork.
- VI. Preston Pauley, born 1823, married Rhoda, daughter of Balt and Mary (Gore) Woodrum. He died 10-25-1854 and on 12-30-1855, his widow married Elias P. Vickers of Horse Creek.
- VII. Elizabeth Pauley, born 1825, married Thompson, son of Samuel and Florence (Perry) Canterbury, also moved to Frame in Kanawha County, before 1860.

The 1830 census of Logan County indicated that Samuel and Patsy Pauley had eight children, four sons and four daughters. The above list accounts for the four sons but only three of the daughters. It is possible that one of the four young females in the household when this census was taken was not a daughter. It is also possible that there was such a daughter but that she had died, or had married and moved away, before the 1850 census was taken.

Next to be shown will be the children of the above, whose names, as previously stated, will be preceded by Arabic numerals.

Next to be shown are the children of the above, all of whom are great-grandchildren of Samuel and Patsy Pauley, and all of whose names will be preceded by a capital letter. However, this list is not complete for several reasons. The foregoing outline is based largely on U. S. census records and the last of these available as this is written are those for 1880. Census records in the past have not been open to the public until 80 years after they are taken as part of the material in them may be of a confidential nature. The 1890 census of Boone County would now be open to the public if it existed, but it was destroyed in a Census Bureau fire.

Another factor that limits an outline such as this is that as time went on people moved from place to place more than previously and not long after the 1870 census some of the grandchildren of Samuel and Betsy Pauley disappear from Boone County records, presumably because they moved away.

With respect to what follows it must then be remembered that only such great-grandchildren of Samuel and Patsy Pauley are included as were in Boone County in 1880, unless mention is made of other sources of information.

It should also be remembered that many of the grandchildren listed above had children who were born after 1880. Their names do not appear in the following list.

This completes the list of descendants of Samuel and Patsy Pauley down to 1880, insofar as the writer has records relating to them, and occasional mention is made of a few born after that date. If a list of all of their descendants to the present could be compiled they would far outnumber those listed here.

Many descendants moved to other areas and no records of their children or descendants exists locally, a prime example being Elizabeth, daughter of Samuel and Patsy Pauley, who married Thompson Canterbury and moved to Kanawha County. A list of her 14 children appears herein on pages 108 and 109, but no local records are available which tell us anything about their descendants.

The method of designating generations used herein is not one used by genealogists, but is helpful in situations where only four generations are being reviewed. This compilation deals with only a small segment of a very large family, and if and when something is written that applies to the whole family a more sophisticated system will be required.
